MINIMUM WAGE · NOW AND FROM APRIL 2027

The legal minimum is £12.71 an hour. From April 2027, £13.21.

If you are 21 or over, nobody can lawfully pay you less than £12.71 an hour. Next year's figure is already set.

BY AGE

£10.85

At 18 to 20 the minimum is £10.85 an hour. Under 18 and for apprentices, £8.00. From April 2027: £11.27 and £8.31.

> An apprentice aged 19 or over who has finished the first year gets the rate for their age, not the apprentice rate.

WHO DOES NOT GET IT

0

If you work for yourself the minimum wage does not apply — you set your own price. Company directors and volunteers are not covered either.

> Nor are family members of the employer living in the employer's home, or anyone below school leaving age.

MINIMUM WAGE · 2026/27

Is the hourly rate right?

Send us a payslip and we will check the rate against the hours. If you run a payroll, we will check that too. No obligation.

0330 133 1886

General information. For your own situation, speak to an accountant.