FOOD BUSINESS REGISTRATION · GOV.UK

Register 28 days before you sell your first meal.

It is free, and the council cannot refuse it. You are registering, not asking for permission.

ALSO COUNTS

Your home

A shop, a takeaway, a stall, a van — and your kitchen at home if you cook to sell. Online only, with no premises, counts too.

> Two places means two registrations.

WHO DOES NOT

Ofsted

A childminder registered with Ofsted in England is already covered. Very limited, infrequent food activity may not need it — and only the council can say so.

> Already trading without it? Register now rather than wait.

OLA ACCOUNTANCY · BIRMINGHAM

Not sure which council to register with?

Our Birmingham office will send you the GOV.UK registration link and the right council for the address you trade from.

0330 133 1886

General information about registration, not food safety advice. Speak to Birmingham City Council's food team.