SELECTIVE LICENSING · BIRMINGHAM.GOV.UK

In 25 of Birmingham's 69 wards, letting needs a licence.

The scheme started on 5 June 2023. In a covered ward every privately rented property needs its own licence, whoever collects the rent.

WHAT IT COSTS

£700

£700 a property: £375 when you apply, £325 when the council grants it. Ten properties means ten licences and ten fees.

> A licence runs up to five years and cannot be transferred.

WHO IS OUTSIDE IT

44 wards

The other 44 wards need no licence at all. Inside the 25, neither does an empty property, a housing association let, or an HMO — a house in multiple occupation.

> The council's address checker gives the ward for your address.
