PENSION CREDIT · GOV.UK

Over State Pension age on less than £238 a week?

Pension Credit pays the difference. It is not the State Pension and has to be claimed.

FOR A COUPLE

£363.25

With a partner, your two incomes are added together and lifted to £363.25 a week. One claim covers both of you.

> It also opens Housing Benefit, a Council Tax Reduction, help with heating and a free TV licence from 75.

WHO GETS NOTHING

Zero

Partner not yet at State Pension age? Usually you get nothing until they reach it. Nobody below State Pension age can claim.

> England, Scotland and Wales. Northern Ireland runs its own.

OLA ACCOUNTANCY · LUTON AND BIRMINGHAM

We do not make the Pension Credit claim, but we can answer the tax side.

Message us on WhatsApp with a question about tax on a pension or on other income.

0330 133 1886

General information. Pension Credit is claimed from the Pension Service, through gov.uk.