STATUTORY SICK PAY · FROM 6 APRIL 2026

Sick pay now starts on the first day.

Until 6 April 2026 the first three days of sickness carried no SSP. Statutory Sick Pay is now due from the first full day of sickness absence, and the earnings floor that shut out the lowest paid has gone.

WHAT YOU GET

£123.25

Up to £123.25 a week, or 80% of your average weekly earnings — whichever is lower. Your employer pays it, for up to 28 weeks.

> That is the legal minimum. A company sick pay scheme can pay more; it cannot pay less.

WHO DOES NOT GET IT

employee

You have to be classed as an employee and have done some work for that employer. There is no sick pay like this on self-employed work: an employer pays it, not the state.

> Nor if you have already had the maximum 28 weeks, or if you are getting Statutory Maternity Pay.
