AIR PASSENGER RIGHTS · UK FLIGHTS

Landed more than 3 hours late? You may be owed money.

The sum has nothing to do with what you paid for the ticket: it is set by law, between £220 and £520 a person. It is never paid automatically — you claim it from the airline.

HOW MUCH, BY DISTANCE

£520

Under 1,500km — £220. From 1,500km to 3,500km — £350. Over 3,500km the sum splits by how late you landed: £260 at three to four hours, £520 beyond four.

> What counts is the time you reached your destination airport, not the time you were due to take off.

WHEN YOU GET NOTHING

3 h

Arrive three hours late or less and no compensation is due. Nor is it due where the airline shows the cause was extraordinary: extreme weather, or an airport or air traffic control strike.

> Any flight leaving a UK airport is covered, on any airline. Into the UK, it is flights operated by a UK or EU airline.

AIR PASSENGER RIGHTS · UK FLIGHTS

Not sure if your flight counts?

Message us and we will send you the Civil Aviation Authority page where you can check it. No obligation.

0330 133 1886

General information, not legal advice. The rules are on caa.co.uk.