STATUTORY REDUNDANCY PAY · GOV.UK

Redundancy pay is not your employer's choice.

The law sets the amount. Under £30,000 it is not taxed.

HOW IT IS WORKED OUT

£751

Each full year counts as half a week's pay up to 22, a week from 22 to 40, and a week and a half from 41. A week counts as £751 at most.

> Ten years all worked from the age of 41, on £600 a week, comes to 15 weeks: £9,000.

WHO GETS NOTHING

2 years

Under two years of continuous service, nothing is due. Self-employed people and contractors are outside the scheme entirely.

> Northern Ireland has its own: £783 a week, £23,490 maximum.
