SELF ASSESSMENT · 30 DECEMBER 2026

Owe tax and have a wage? HMRC takes it out of your pay.

Owe under £3,000 and already pay tax through PAYE, and HMRC does not ask for the whole sum on 31 January: it takes it from your wages a bit at a time across the year. Automatically. Nothing to apply for.

THE THREE CONDITIONS

£3,000

You owe less than £3,000. You already pay tax through PAYE on a wage or a pension. And you file online by 30 December 2026.

> The paper deadline was 31 October and has gone. Online, there are still a few weeks.

WHO CANNOT

50%

Owe £3,000 or more and you cannot — and you cannot part-pay to get under it. Nor if there is too little PAYE income to collect from, or if over 50% of your pay would go in tax.

> It happens automatically if you qualify. If you do NOT want it taken from your wages, tick the box on your return to stop it.

SELF ASSESSMENT · 30 DECEMBER 2026

Want the bill spread out?

Message us and we will check whether you qualify and what has to be filed by 30 December. No obligation.

0330 133 1886

General information. For your own situation, speak to an accountant.