AIR PASSENGER RIGHTS · UK FLIGHTS

Landed more than 3 hours late? You may be owed money.

The sum has nothing to do with what you paid for the ticket: it is set by law, between £220 and £520 a person. It is not paid automatically — you claim it from the airline.

HOW MUCH, BY DISTANCE

£220+

Under 1,500km — £220. From 1,500km to 3,500km — £350. Over 3,500km — £260 if you landed three to four hours late, £520 if you landed more than four hours late.

> What counts is the time you reached your destination airport, not the time you were due to take off.

WHEN YOU GET NOTHING

£0

Arrival, not departure: under 3 hours late, nothing is due. Nor if the airline proves an unavoidable extraordinary cause, such as weather that makes it unsafe to fly, or an airport or air-traffic strike unrelated to the airline. A technical fault is not one.

> Any flight leaving a UK airport is covered, on any airline. Into the UK, it is flights operated by a UK or EU airline.

AIR PASSENGER RIGHTS · UK FLIGHTS

Not sure if your flight counts?

Message us and we will send you the Civil Aviation Authority page where you can check it. No obligation.

0330 133 1886

General information, not legal advice. The rules are on caa.co.uk.